

Bendlowe's visit to
RHS Garden
Hyde Hall

Thursday 30 May 2019

RHS Garden Hyde Hall is surely one of the finest gardens in the East of England, its location among rolling hills and fantastic panoramic views can often surprise the visitor to Essex. This 145-hectare (360-acre) estate is constantly evolving, as the gardening team strive to retain the original intimacy and charm of this horticultural gem, while at the same time aiming to restore much of the estate to its former rural glory, including its historic hedgerows and woodland.

10.15 am Arrival Tea or coffee in the Clover Café/look around the Visitor Centre & Shop

11 am A member of the garden team will meet you for a 90-minute guided tour, finishing at the Hilltop Garden and stunning Mediterranean-inspired Dry Garden.

12.30 pm Feel free to enjoy a seasonal lunch at the new Gardeners' Rest restaurant and/or continue to explore the gardens.
