

Brains of Shalford took part in in the Horticultural Society Quiz night in January, not only did you have to know the answers but also be Artists as the efforts on the teams Jokers show.

The event raises much needed funds to promote our Summer & Autumn Horticultural shows each year, again we had several teams applying for tables.

Quizzy Rascals, Jolly Hockey Sticks, Pointless Entities, No eye idea, Neighbours, Horse and hounds, Blackenders, Old Wills, Lemon Heads, S & Ms

The winners were Quizzy Rascals - who won a bottle of wine each and the losing team won a lemon each.

Thanks go to Sally and Kevin - the Quizmasters
